KEY MARKET TRENDS

Recent year, the popularity of restaurants and bars are fast growing in Thailand. Due to increased consumer demand for high quality standard and hygiene, the market share of the restaurant and bar segment has fully-fledged. Also, the restaurant seeks to attract younger generation and first-jobbers by offering high quality food, a unique atmosphere, and exceptional dining experience. Moreover, many restaurants increasingly offer takeout and delivery options, which are gaining popular during COVID-19 pandemic.
